Published: March 2026

Note: This guide is not intended as authoritative guidance and should be used for reference purposes only.

WHY IS SPRING RENEWAL REQUIRED?

Spring Renewal begins in April every year and is required under Regulatory Bylaw 10.4. The term of a member registration is April 1 until March 31 of the following year. Registered members with CPA Saskatchewan renew on a fiscal year basis.

Annually, Spring Renewal involves:

WHAT HAS CHANGED FOR THIS RENEWAL CYCLE?

Effective April 1, 2026, as the result of the new national governance and funding structure, CPA Saskatchewan will no longer collect a CPA Canada fee and your continued membership in CPA Canada is optional.

CPA Saskatchewan fees have increased to include the costs of professional standard setting and pre-certification education, which will be paid directly by CPA Saskatchewan under this new structure. This will ensure continued access to professional standards and related guidance materials within the Handbook for all CPA Saskatchewan members, and continued funding of the existing pre-certification education program.

For more information, please visit <https://cpask.ca/member/fees-cpd/important-changes-to-202627-fees>

Step 3 – Member Fees Exemption/Reduction and CPD Exemption Request (if eligible)

2026/27 Member Fees Exemption/Reduction and 2026 CPD Exemption Request

Questions? Please visit our website for more information about exemptions and reductions for member fees and CPD requirements. Please note sole practitioners with a registered firm are ineligible to apply for an exemption or reduction.

Who is eligible for an exemption/reduction?

If you are ceasing practice prior to June 30, 2026, you must apply below for an exemption from 2026/27 member fees and 2026 CPD requirements. After June 30, 2026, you must make a written submission to the Registration Committee to obtain an exemption.

- Example: I am on maternity leave effective June 1, 2026 and will be returning to work on June 1, 2027. You are eligible for a Temporary Non-Practice exemption. This exemption provides a 100% fees waiver and 100% reduction in 2026 CPD requirements.
- Example: I have retired effective June 30, 2026. You are eligible for a Permanent Non-Practice exemption. This exemption provides a 100% fees waiver and 100% reduction in 2026 CPD requirements.
- Example: I will earn $30,000 this calendar year. You are eligible for a Special Circumstances reduction, for income earned between $15,000 and $40,000. This reduction provides a 50% fees reduction only. You must still complete 2026 CPD requirements.
- Example: I will earn below $15,000 this calendar year. You are eligible for a Special Circumstances exemption, for income earned under $15,000. This exemption provides a 100% fees waiver and 100% reduction in 2026 CPD requirements.

Firm Registration or Licensure

If you are performing services that require registration as a firm or a licence, you will be ineligible for any exemption or reduction.

Request (if eligible)

Do you require relief from paying 2026/27 member fees and/or completing 2026 CPD requirements? *

Yes  No

Cancel

Previous

Next

If you are eligible for an exemption or reduction in fees, select Yes and follow the prompts. For more information, please visit our website or the criteria chart below.

For all other members (or if you do not require an exemption or reduction), select No and proceed to the fees payment.

The below chart explains the criteria for exemption/reduction eligibility:

Category	Criteria for Fees Reduction or Exemption	CPD Exemption?

HONEST DECLARATIONS

As a CPA, you have an inherent responsibility to make honest declarations when providing information to CPA Saskatchewan.

During the upcoming Spring Renewal you are required to read, understand and declare to a series of questions on your character, practice and demographics. At the conclusion you sign off that you have provided information that is accurate, complete and in compliance with the Rules.

A confirmation email is sent to you that summarizes your responses for review. It is important to seek clarification if you are uncertain about the questions or how you responded by emailing registrar@cpask.ca.

Attesting to a false or misleading declaration is a breach of Rule 205 in the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Click on Submit Member Renewal. You will receive an email confirmation of your member renewal within 24 hours after submission. Once you have declared, you will be taken back to the Progress Tracker.
